

Phil Lewis Bio

Phil Lewis is the new director of the Winning At Home Tampa Bay office. His skills and passion are a perfect fit with the mission of Winning At Home to encourage people at all ages and stages of family development to lead Christ-centered homes. Phil brings decades of experience as a pastor, and he is also a certified coach, trainer and speaker with the John Maxwell Team. His passion has been, and continues to be, providing resources and tools for men and women; moms and dads; husbands and wives; and singles and seniors to enable them to build the life of their dreams and win at home.

Phil uses his wealth of knowledge obtained by working with thousands of clients dealing with innumerable issues to equip and empower people to leverage their strengths and successfully deal with their weaknesses in order to experience the life they want. As an engaging and thoughtful speaker, Phil draws his audience in by sharing real-life stories as well as effective and proven processes that listeners can implement in their own life.

Phil has also acquired experience the old-fashioned way through his own family life as a husband to his wife Mindy, father to his married daughters Noelle and Bethany and grandfather to precious Eliza and Malakai.
