Dan Seaborn

Dan Seaborn is the founder of Winning At Home and an engaging and powerful speaker. His comfortable, humorous communication style allows him to connect easily with audiences of all ages. Through energetic and memorable presentations, Dan talks openly about family life—often through revealing his own struggles or failures. His experience with family comes from being married for more than 40 years and raising four kids with his wife, Jane.

As the featured speaker at various large-scale events all over the country, Dan has earned recognition as an influential and passionate communicator who uses practical illustrations and real-life examples to teach others how to win at home.

In addition to being an international speaker and president of the organization, Dan serves as the leader for the Marriage & Family Division of the American Association of Christian Counselors. He is the author of 16 books, and has established himself as a media personality on over 350 radio stations across the nation. He and Jane have been married for over 40 years and have four adult children and eight grandchildren.

SPEAKING TOPICS

Dan's calling is very clear—to speak Christ clearly and to give people practical, biblical insight into marriage and family issues at all ages and stages of development. His skill set allows him to speak with a balance of humor and seriousness on a wide variety of topics.
